CZAR'S MURDERERS TO BE TRIED SOON.

PARIS, FRANCE, Oct. 13.—The trial of 163 men and women charged with complicity or participation in the murder of Czar Nicholas and his family will open at Omsk, Siberia, within a fortnight, it was learned Monday night. They were arrested when Admiral Kolchak's army took Ekaterinburg.

Most of the bodies of the murdered Romanoffs were found by Kolchak's Investigating Committees at Ekaterinburg, with the exception of those of the Czar and Czarina. The bodies of the Czar and Czarina, it has been authoritatively learned, were cut up and burned.

A common tomb was found containing the bodies of the murdered children of the former imperial couple. The discovery was made through the favorite bloodhound of the youngest Grand Duchess. After the murder the dog refused to follow any one. He camped over the tomb, howling and eating just enough to keep from dying.

REMOLD NEW WORLD TASK FOR NATIONS

MUST BE DONE WITH ALL PEOPLE "ON THEIR NERVES," DECLARES DR. J. R. MOTT.

TALKS TO STATE Y. M. C. A.

Plastic From War's Blasts All the Nations Can Be Shaped to New Ideals.

After an absence of twenty years, Dr. John R. Mott, of New York, the General Secretary of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A., was the guest of Louisville and Kentucky on the occasion of the state-wide conference on the second of the month. Dr. Mott was given a remarkable reception, and in the opening words of his address at the evening dinner, precipitated a volume of cheers and great enthusiasm from the three hundred and fifty people in the spacious auditorium of the Seelbach Hotel.

"We have come out into a new day, a day of citizenship, and we'll follow our President in this great undertaking of reaching out to help the nations of the world," he declared. His expression brought a storm of applause, which grew into loud cheers of enthusiasm. Continuing, Dr. Mott paid a glowing tribute to the hard work, unselfishness and sacrifices of President Wilson. He spoke touchingly of the adverse news from Washington concerning the condition of the chief executive, and asked that he be specially remembered in the prayers of the audience that "God would spare him to the American people in a time when he is so sorely needed."

"I think if he could be here tonight and hear your cheers he would be heartened," Dr. Mott said.

Allies Want Y. M. C. A. in Armies.

In his discourse Dr. Mott disclosed that every one of the allies of the United States, to the number of twenty, have expressed the desire to have the Y. M. C. A. established in their standing armies as a result of the observation of its workings in the American army, and it only remains for the John R. Mott.

United States Senate, he said, to decide that this country will "try the experiment" of running the army without it. He predicted that it will be an experiment of short duration, and that the "Y" work will be resumed on the old basis before a great while.

Dr. Mott addressed six meetings Thursday, completing a strenuous day, and leaving that night for Cincinnati, reaching Washington City the following Saturday for an important conference.

The luncheon meeting for state secretaries and district chairmen was widely representative of Kentucky, according to the word of State Y. M. C. A. officers, and the dinner meeting in the evening was equally representative of Louisville. The quota of this city in the coming campaign, $41,000, was announced.

The luncheon was presided over by L. L. Anderson of Louisville, the president of the State Y. M. C. A. and campaign chairman. General Chas. P. Summerall, Commander of the First Division, the famous "Fighting First in France," and new commander of Camp Taylor, was the first speaker of the program and the first appearance of the general as a speaker in Louisville.

"I am no speaker," said General Summerall, "but anyone is able to talk on such a subject as the work of the Y. M. C. A. in the war."

General Summerall spoke eloquently on the great service the Y. M. C. A. rendered, and said in substance:

"The crowning inspiration of the Y. M. C. A. was sending the splendid women, who brought the spirit of the mothers and sisters to the soldiers. They sustained the splendid morale of the army and were a real factor in winning the war."

Mr. P. C. Dix, the State Secretary, made a ringing statement of the actual achievements of the State Y. M. C. A., dwelling upon the results secured by the district scheme of organization. He said there is a Y. M. C. A. secretary competent and experienced in Y. M. C. A. work and a committee back of him, for every ten counties in the state. This plan has been in actual operation for the past two years and is not a piece of imagination caused by the war and presented as paper plans. The work presented in the State Y. M. C. A. publication, "At It for Seventy-five Years," was a real report of statewide activities that represented the entire state. "Our na-tionary," he said, "makes it possible for us to carry a message to every high school in the state in a period of eleven days, and if it were not for some of the places some of you come from, counties that have no railroads in them, we could make it in less time than this." "Now our most timely question is," he continued, "will you make it possible for the State Y. M. C. A. to maintain and extend its scheme of work so as to care for the needs of young men and boys in the small counties of the unorganized fields, or will it be compelled to reduce its organization to such an extent that some other organization will come in whose motive will be other than the religious one."

Following Mr. Dix, Rev. R. T. Nooe of Frankfort eloquently advocated the policy of the Y. M. C. A.'s occupying the entire field and offered a motion to that effect, seconded in an equally earnest and eloquent tone by Glibney Oscar Letcher, an attorney of Henderson. On the call of the campaign director, C. A. Tevebaugh, every district from the "Purchase" to the Big Sandy reported organization and a hearty acceptance of their quota of the statewide objective.

Dr. Mott's Address.

John R. Mott's address was one of the most impressive discourses ever delivered in Louisville. The distinguished American was introduced by Dr. E. Y. Mullins, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, who, in presenting the guest of honor, called attention to the many conspicuous positions of leadership which Dr. Mott has occupied. Among these were head of the Student Volunteer Movement for years; head of the organization of the International Y. M. C. A.; head of the War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A., and head of the Edinburgh Conference. "Though a layman, Dr. Mott is the outstanding religious figure of the day, because the fire of his spiritual devotion burns so strong and so bright in the midst of a practical life," concluded Dr. Mullins.

Dealing With a New World.

"I remind you that you are dealing with a new world—a shaken, quivering world—a world in which pillars that were deemed pillars of strength and were pointed to with pride, have crumbled to dust at our feet," said Dr. Mott, after a brief preliminary which explained that he had for the past thirty-one years been "cruising" over the world on missions of helpfulness in forty-six countries; that he had visited the war zones of Europe six times during the course of the world war and had traveled 7,000 miles on the eastern front.

Continuing, the speaker said: It is an impoverished world also, for up to six months ago it had cost over 200 billions of dollars; it is an exhausted world both economically and vitally, as demonstrated by the 11,000,000 graves that have been filled because of the struggle; and it is still a "sorrowing and suffering world, for in all my six visits to the war zones I spent much of my time in the homes, and not one that I can recall but had been visited once, and often many times, by the dark shadow of death."

The World is "On Its Nerves."

Dr. Mott said that the people everywhere impressed him as being "on their nerves" and in a state of irritability, which is productive of criticism. He declared that it is a wonderful time to live when a whole world is accessible to new ideas. Comparatively speaking, it is an unselfish world too, he said, for although it is not so unselfish as it was a year ago, or two years ago, it is far more unselfish than before the war.

"I had thought that I might see one of two nations plastic, but I never thought to see a whole world molten and plastic as is the world today—but it will set, and set hard in a new mold, and this is the golden opportunity of an organization like the Y. M. C. A., which can render a unique service at this time because of its contact with both capital and labor in the industrial unrest. Its forward looking program in the development of young manhood physically, intellectually and spiritually, can be a determining factor in the molding of the nations, for I have been thrown with the leaders of many of the nations, and none of them are sure that they know the way. Yes, it is a humble world, too, for where there is a nation today which boasts that it knows how to deal with its problems?" he said.

Praises State Y. M. C. A. Work.

"I have been particularly impressed with the plans which have just been laid before you men of Kentucky. I am sure you cannot realize how far reaching this program may be. Because of this, I would like to say that by a peculiar circumstance, I have been able to get a larger view—a setting as it were—on the effect of just what such an enterprise may accomplish; by reason of the fact that I have traveled in every country in the world, have been associated with the peoples and leaders of so many nations, and have watched the virus of Bolshevism, which seeks to cleave the nations into class hatred, spread over Europe and the United States. I would say that you can have no conception of the multiplying possibilities of this program; or of the healing possibilities of its application. It is a pivotal campaign. There will be new energies released. It looks into the successes and visions of the churches."

Army "Y" Men Elected.

The Army Y. M. C. A., attending the conference, about 100 in number, met in the afternoon and organized the Army Y. M. C. A. Club. Harry V. McChesney of Frankfort was elected president; Glibney Oscar Letcher of Henderson, vice president, and L. J. Darter of Louisville, secretary and treasurer.

ONE COUNTRY, ONE PEOPLE.

The American Legion will hold its National Convention in Minneapolis, November 11, and in its preparations the National Executive Committee has done a pretty thing—several pretty things, indeed, things beautifully in harmony with the finely American spirit it is showing.

It has issued an invitation to the Grand Army of the Republic to join it in its convention, and the Grand Army has accepted. More than that, at the same time it issued an invitation also to the United Confederate Veterans, and the officers of that organization of the men who wore the gray have cordially promised to bring the invitation up at the annual reunion in Atlanta next month. In the same spirit, similar invitations have been issued to the United Spanish War Veterans and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. And, last, but not least, the same invitation has gone to the Canadian Veteran's Army Association, a neighborly act as these other invitations were patriotic acts.

These were pretty things to do and it was like the American Legion to do them.

Puritanic Names.

Faith-not, God-reward, Sarth, Meek, Repentance, Kill-sin, Be faithful, More fruit, Seek-wisdom, Accepted, Return, Hope-for, Weep-not; Fly-debate, and Stand-fast-on-high! Yes, these were all perfectly good front names in Mayflower times. They represent some of the flower of a Puritan jury. But think what an awful time the wives and sweethearts of these gentlemen must have had finding nick-names for them!

Where Blame Lies.

Life starts most of us out with an excellent endowment of strength. It is our own abuse of this strength that brings about our ailments. Life starts most of us out with courage and will. It is our own neglect of these qualities that sets courage and will dwindling. Life starts most of us with very good looks or with looks that are good enough. It is our own neglect of personal care that makes us plain looking.

Daily Thought.

In adversity it is easy to despise life; the truly brave man is he who can endure to be miserable.—Martial.
